Did you know...

“turn a blind eye”

The meaning of the phrase “TURN A BLIND EYE”.

This phrase is said to be inspired by a famous episode in the Battle of Copenhagen in 1801.

The British Vice Admiral Horatio Nelson was ordered by flag signal from the fleet commander to withdraw.

Nelson deliberately put his telescope to his eye that had been blinded in an earlier battles and announced that he could not see a signal.

He then led an attack that meant major victory for the English.

Week three of the new Winter Menu starts on Monday 19th of August. Please place any orders by Thursday lunchtime.
Bon Appetit!
