Did you know...

Why August 1st is considered the official horses' birthday?

All horses born in the southern hemisphere celebrate their birthday on August 1st as a means of standardising equine Related sporting events such as horse racing.

This date is based on the breeding season of horses, so horses born in the northern hemisphere celebrate their birthday on January 1st.

Week one of the new Winter Menu starts on Monday 5th of August.

Please place any orders by Thursday lunchtime.

Bon Appetit!
