Happy New Year

Some Unusual New Year Traditions from around the World

Spain

It is customary to eat 12 grapes- one at each stroke of midnight on New Year's Eve. Each grape represents good luck for one month of the coming year.

Denmark

Residents of Denmark greet the New year by throwing old plates and glasses against the doors of family and friends to banish bad spirits. They also stand on chairs and jump off them together at midnight to "leap" into January in the hope of good luck.

Greece

An onion is traditionally hung on the front door of homes on New Year as a symbol of rebirth in the New year. On New Year's Day, parents wake their children by tapping them on the head with the onion!

Scotland

During Scotland's New Year celebration of Hogmanay, "first-footing" is practiced across the country. The first person to cross the threshold of a home on new Year's Eve should be dark haired and carry a piece of coal for luck throughout the upcoming year.

Week Two of the Summer Menu starts on Monday 13th January.

Please place any orders by lunchtime the Thursday before.

Bon Appetit!
