

2 September 2020

Important Dates

You have until the end of this week to cast your vote for your favourite limerick in our competition.

(Sunday 6 of September)

The winner will be announced in next week's newsletter.

(Wednesday 9 September)

The Melbourne Recital Centre presents a live concert via ZOOM. To book call:

98804709 or email:

socialsupport@basscare.org.au.

No ZOOM experience necessary, it is as simple as a click!

Our social support team can help you get connected, and are available for Zoom/IT assistance over the phone.

Access free Wi-Fi on ground floor. Please see staff for the password.

Housekeeping Notices

We would like to welcome Simon a new staff member to Hester Canterbury.

Simon has recently been employed by BASScare as our new gardener for all our sites. Over time you will see Simon regularly at Hester Canterbury developing and nurturing all our outdoor areas.

Simon is very willing to consider any resident input concerning the gardens within in limitations.

A gentle reminder that at ALL times that all visitors and service providers MUST do the following-

- Use hand sanitizer upon entering the building,
- Sign in at the reception desk, and
- Have their temperature taken.

Thank you for your cooperation.

The Hester Canterbury Newsletter is uploaded on the Hester website under 'news'.

www.hestercanterbury.com.au

This week in History

September 2, 1666

The Great Fire of London starts in a bakery in Pudding Lane. While the fire destroyed much of the actual City of London it also helped kill off some of the black rats and their fleas that carried the plague known as the “Black Death”.

(Bubonic Plague).

September 4, 1781

City of Los Angeles founded by the Spanish Governor Felipe de Neve.

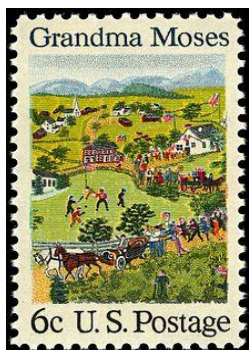

September 5, 1997

Death of Nobel Peace Prize winner and advocate for the poor, Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

Born in Macedonia in 1910, by 1946 Mother Teresa was teaching in India. Her order established a hospice, centres for the blind, the aged and the disabled, along with a leper colony.

September 7, 1860

Birth of the self taught, late life artist Anna Mary Robertson or “Grandma Moses”.

Anna started painting at the age of 78 and her work was much sort after immediately.

Week Four of the Winter Menu starts on Monday 14 September. Please place any orders by lunchtime the Thursday before. Bon Appetit!

Hester
Canterbury

Please forward any contributions for future newsletters to Alexia for inclusion.

Email: hester@basscare.org.au