

May 12 2021

Important Dates

Wednesday, 19 May 10:30am
Cancer Council Big Morning
Tea and Trivia.

Please come along for a fun event and help raise funds for a really worthwhile cause. So we have an idea of numbers attending for catering purposes the sign up sheet is available at the reception desk.

Save The Date -

Thursday 27 May
Thursday 24 June
Thursday 29 July
Thursday 26 August
Thursday 30 September
Thursday 28 October
Thursday 25 November
Friday 10 December

Hester Canterbury monthly dinners; more details to follow....

Access free Wi-Fi on ground floor. Please see staff for the password.

Housekeeping Notices

Please ensure that all visitors use the visitors' parking bays in the garage (we have 5 on site). Understandably it is very annoying to get home to find your car space taken up by another car (especially when there are spare visitors' car bays available).

It is with great satisfaction that we can report that the tile on the southern walkway corner has been replaced.

Important Announcement-

The Hester Canterbury Residents' Forum is being held at 10:30am in the main lounge on Tuesday, May 25. Please note change of date.

The change of date is to enable as many residents to attend as possible. The forum is a vital communication channel to ensure that as many matters can be discussed while fostering a culture of mutual interest .

Your attendance is valued and it is hoped that you will make every effort to attend because by doing so you support our community.

If you would like a matter discussed at the forum please put it in writing for the Residents' Committee to include in the Agenda.

The Hester Canterbury Newsletter is uploaded on the Hester website under 'news'.

www.hestercanterbury.com.au

While there wasn't enough response to start up a Scrabble group at Hester Canterbury, anyone interested in a game is very welcome to join in on a cards and games afternoon held 1:30pm of a Thursday May 13 and June 10, at the Canterbury Centre, 2 Rochester Road, Canterbury. (No charge).

Useless Facts – Some words we have lost in English speech-

Hugger Mugger

It sounds like a term from the Harry Potter series, but the first known use of the term “hugger-mugger” appeared in the 1520s, according to Merriam-Webster, and was used in two completely different ways: first, as a synonym for “a secret act,” and secondly, to mean “disorder” or “confusion.” It is spoken by Claudius in Shakespeare’s Hamlet, which was written around 1600: “For good Polonius’ death, and we have done but greenly in hugger-mugger to inter him.”

Rum Peeper

It may sound like the name of a drink you’d order at a bar, however a rum peeper has absolutely nothing to do with alcohol. Rather, upper class women in the late 1600’s polished their coifs in front of “rum peepers”, which was the name given to a looking glass, or, as we call them today, mirrors.

Buss

Back in the 16th century, the word “buss” referred to a kiss, especially a loud or exuberant one.

Derived from the Middle English term “bassen”, which means “to kiss”, the word’s first known use is somewhere around 1570.

Week Two of the Autumn Menu starts on Monday 17 May.
Please place any orders by lunchtime the Thursday before.
Bon Appetit!

Hester
Canterbury

Please forward any contributions for future newsletters to Alexia for inclusion.

Email: hester@basscare.org.au