PRESTINE PARKING

Your vehicle maybe thinking it's in need of a little TLC, but your car space is thinking it more. So, on Friday 2 June we will have contractors scrubbing and cleansing away the grime from the basement car park, leaving a spotless space to rest your vehicle. This process should take around 2 hours and we will need the Car Park vacated of all vehicles to achieve the best possible result. Replacement parking on the day will be communicated closer to the time. Oh, maybe give your vehicle a treat and use the car wash bay prior to the floor clean.

NEWSLETTER IS MORE THAN WORDS AND PICTURES

Though the latest resident survey results are yet to be summarized, it appears that the weekly newsletter is a key form of communication for the residents, therefore it is important that you invest the time to scan over the newsletter for pertinent information that may impact yourself, and / or the community. Also, it can be entertaining at times, especially the antidotes residents provide.

A FLIP OF THE COIN

For those diehard AFL enthusiasts, Australia Post has launched a first-of-it's-kind set of AFL $1 Collectible Coins, with the full set of 20 coins in a collector folder for $45, or individual team coins for $5 each at participating Post Offices. Maybe a great gift for a treasured grandchild.

ARMCHAIR TRAVEL DELIGHTS

Once was not enough to celebrate my favourite travel destination, the place I first grew an appreciation and culinary love for Italian cuisine, a place of history and tales. Where else would you be standing, but Roma.

On my first visit while sightseeing I was to stumble on a magnificent ristorante called Alberto's, an establishment I reflect upon fondly to this day and along with the rich tourist fodder Rome offers as a whole, was the main reason to visit on a second occasion.

After traveling by rail across the mountains from France, my third visit was met with sheer disappointment as I arrived to find my beloved Alberto's, my Italian brother, had closed down. A gateway to Italy, Rome was always worth the visit, be it cruising the rivers, immersing yourself in the Colosseum, or taking in the Vatican City and local culture, you will not be disappointed. Ciao Alberto's.
