vessel that chooses to put its catch ahead of the crews own safety. Take your sea sick pills, don your life jacket and prepare to get wet, this coming Tuesday 8 August at 7:30pm in Hester Class.

IT'S NOT ALWAYS WHAT YOU SEE THAT'S IMPORTANT

Hester Canterbury has been formally recognized for their commitment to quality improvements, implementation of effective systems, processes and team work against the Australian retirement Village Accreditation Scheme (ARVAS) Standards with the Award of Accreditation by QIP.

“Accreditation is a major achievement and a clear demonstration that Hester Canterbury is committed to providing their residents with a high quality living environment. Accreditation is more than a compliance-based program, it recognizes strengths and areas for improvement, which helps Villages / Communities to identify key quality improvement priorities. This should be commended, and QIP congratulates Hester Canterbury on reaching this national benchmark” Gary Smith, Chairman of QIP.
