A PRIZE EXCURSION

Very pleased to inform you that we've secured tickets to the 2023 Archibald Prize at the Mornington Peninsula Regional Gallery, Monday 23 October.

The outing will include ticket to the exhibition, lunch and return bus trip. More details to follow and a Sign-Up form will be available at Reception from 10am next Monday 18 September, along with choice of lunch menu. There is limited availability as the bus caters for 11 passengers only, so getting in quick is the trick.

Hester Class

From the pages of Charlotte Bronte, Jane Eyre is romantic drama that sees a tearful Jane run away from Thornfield Hall, finding herself alone on the moors. She collapses at the doorstep of Moor House, home of St. John Rivers and his sisters Diana and Mary; they take Jane in and nurse her back to health. The film flashes between Jane's recovery, her grim childhood, and the special bond she forms with a strapping gentleman named Rochester. Screening Tuesday 19 September at 7:30pm.

Notices

IT'S FINALLY HERE

For those residents that are in a position to attend the BASScare Hester Canterbury Annual General Meeting this Friday 15 September, it will be held in the Dining Room at 10:30am, with morning tea hitting the lounge from 10am. If you have not already, could you please contact the Returning Officer (Robyn) for a Proxy Form if you will be an apology on Friday, and notify me if you get the chance. You will receive the AGM Agenda in your mailbox soon.

SPRING IS IN THE AIR AND ON THE TABLE

For our seasoned gastronomes amongst us, you would have already received the much anticipated Hester Canterbury Spring Menu from our wonderful Chefs at Faversham House. For everyone else, curiosity killed the cat so if you are interested in just seeing what is on the menu, then please let me know and I shall place a copy of the Spring Menu in your mailbox. Remember, you can place your order for the following week anytime before the Thursday prior. Dine in comfort & bon appetit.

A HEALTHY CLEAN

Please note, to use the sanitizing wipe dispenser located on the Gym wall, firstly pull the cover of the wipes dispenser down, grab a wipe and pull to release. Once you have finished wiping down the equipment, please close the cover on the dispenser.

The Hester Canterbury Newsletter is uploaded on the Hester Website under 'news'.
